

TESL
Teaching English as a Subsequent Language
Saskatchewan

TESL SK/SK TEAL

Saskatchewan Teachers of English as an Additional Language

2011 Annual Conference

Pluralism and Language Learning

May 13 & 14, 2011

University of Regina

How do I encourage my adult learners to participate more in class?

What kind of tutoring and teaching methods reflect pluralism?

Can elementary & high school students learn content in two languages?

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr. Mela Sarker, McGill University
When did Multiculturalism Become Politically Incorrect?

Dr. Brian Morgan, York University
Language Teacher Identity: Fostering Agency for a Pluralistic Society

www.skconference2011.ca

Sponsored by

University of Regina

English as a
Second Language
Centre for Continuing Education

